

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP COMPLEMENTS

6 X $ 5 000 complements

GOAL

The International Centre for Comparative Criminology* (CICC), an inter-universities center, is offering postdoctoral fellowship complements (worth $5 000 CAD) for an internship at CICC for a minimum of one year. The candidate must hold external funding (SSHRC scholarship, FRQSC scholarship or others) or funding from his postdoctoral director for the duration of the internship.

The project submitted in the application should be related to the CICC research themes and the applicant should be ready to assume responsibilities related to more general activities in our research centre. To learn more about the research themes of the CICC, please visit our website: <http://www.cicc.umontreal.ca/en/research>

REQUIREMENTS

Your application can be written in English

- The research project (three pages maximum) should detail the following : 1. Issue, 2. Objectives, 3. Methodology, 4. Schedule, 5. References, 6. The statement of motivations to carry out his project at CICC;
- A schedule of achievements for the duration of the fellowship;
- The letter of appreciation from the CICC's postdoctoral fellowship director and the letter of appreciation from the doctoral studies director (letters provided as part of the application to the granting organization);
- The confirmation of funding for the postdoctoral fellowship;
- A curriculum vitae outlining your main achievements.

CONDITIONS

- You must hold a PhD degree before starting the postdoctoral research and for no more than three years prior to the proposed starting date of the fellowship;
- You must be supervised by a regular researcher from the CICC. The researcher must formally agree to supervise the candidate in the postdoctoral research and will guarantee the feasibility of the project. Therefore, the first step is to contact a researcher from the CICC to elaborate a project that could be realized within a 12 months period. Please visit our website to know our regular researchers and their fields of research: http://www.cicc.umontreal.ca/en/recherche/chercheurs_personnel_etudiants.html
- You must have completed University studies in a field relevant or related to criminology: Anthropology, forensics, law, history, psychiatry, psycho-education, psychology, political science, sociology, applied social sciences statistics, and social work are the principal related fields;
- Master French or English. You must be able to write scientific papers, either in French or English;
- Demonstrate the relevance of the project for the practice environment;
- The postdoctoral fellow will last at least 12 months during 2021-2022 or 2022-2023, full time (35h/week).

CANDIDATE COMMITMENT

- You engage to write a maximum of 10 pages report, summarizing the benefits of the research (this report will be on our website) at the end of your fellowship.
- During the fellowship, present a conference as part of the CICC lunchtime Conferences and lead a methodological training for graduate students in criminology.

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION

These complements are offered on a first-come, first-served basis until all funds given, the CICC having an annual amount for those complements.

- Your request must be sent by email to the following address: bourses-contrats@cicc.umontreal.ca

*Although the title might suggest that the research must include a comparative aspect, it is not a requirement.
